SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES

- Views of the Glasshouse Mountains as we drive past. Learn how the volcanic plugs were formed and the Aboriginal dreamtime story of their creation.
- Mary Cairncross Park. Enjoy a guided eco-walk through lush, sub-tropical rainforest – an easy 45-minute stroll. Stop by the Australian Wildlife Education Centre as you finish the walk.
- Stunning lookout over the Glass House Mountains.
- Drive along the ridgeline of the beautiful hinterland with sweeping views over the coastline beaches and Pacific Ocean.
- Wander through the cute mountain village of Montville filled with art galleries, food tastings, funky cafes, souvenirs and handicrafts. Enjoy a superb lunch at a charming café - a local favourite.
- Taste a variety of local gourmet cheeses.
- Guided eco-walk through Kondalilla Falls Circuit. 'Kondalilla' means 'rushing waters' in the local Aboriginal language and describes its waterfall dropping 90 metres into a rainforest valley. The walk includes a variety of native forest types and another smaller waterfall into a natural rock-pool.
- Flame Hill Winery to relax and taste a variety of the fantastic local wines.
- Option of local craft beer tastings.
